Profile

Advanced knowledge and seven years of complex experience in big shows with more than seventy people each one. Apassionate for my job I decided to created my own company. I could work like a Freelance or hired by other company.

I'm started my professional career like an actor playing in theatre, TV and cinema. After those young years I started to work in another area but finally I came back to the performing arts in the production area because it's my life.

Now, after ten years a go, I'm working like a Producer, Sales Manager, Tour Manager and Actors Manager. Bringing all my knowledge in every show and leaving part of my soul on it.
Ability to work effectively as a part of a team or individually. Used to working under pressure.

Built and nurtured excellent working relationships with executives, management teams, performers, crew's staff partners and customers.

I'm Self-demanding, self-motivated, perceptive, persuasive, good communicator and team building. Absolute availability to Travel if the job requires.
